

34. International Oldtimer-Meeting Baden-Baden is curiously awaited

(Baden-Baden, 05th December 2009) The last oldtimers have left Baden-Baden Kurpark in July and are now back safely in the garages of their owners – but just to be prepared for the 34. International Oldtimer-Meeting 2010. “After the Oldtimer-Meeting is before the Oldtimer-Meeting”, also says organizer Jean-Marc Culas. “For 34 years now, Baden-Baden Kurpark can’t be imagined without oldtimers. We are looking forward to the next year and are already in the middle of the preparations.”

All oldtimer enthusiasts, who can’t hardly wait, should earmark the date from 09. to the 11. July 2010 – then, the 34. International Oldtimer-Meeting Baden-Baden takes place once again. And for those, who don’t want to just watch and instead present their own piece of automobile jewellery in exclusive setting: Order your registration forms or download them via www.oldtimer-meeting.com.

For 2010, Baden-Baden once again expects more than 350 oldtimers from all over Europe. The new brand of honour for the 34. International Oldtimer-Meeting Baden-Baden will be announced at the beginning of the year 2010. The brand of honour in 2009 was Audi and Horch, Mercedes-Benz was the brand in 2008. Be curious!

Of course, also in 2010 there will be an extensive and exclusive program. Fashion shows, live music, nostalgic garden-parties as well as light and laser illuminations turn the Internatinal Oldtimer-Meeting Baden-Baden into a feast for the senses – not only for friends of oldtimers!

In 1976, Jean-Marc Culas organised the 1. International Oldtimer-Meeting Baden-Baden with the support of Kurdirektor Prof. Burger and Erich Braxmeier. There have been 35 participants and approximately 1,000 visitors. Nowadays, experts see this event as “Germany’s most beautiful oldtimer meeting, a true open-air museum of automobile history in a gorgeous green setting.”
